BIG SURPRISE IS WAITING

No one can say "fake" as to the Arabian Nights. The incident taken from that book is faithfully portrayed by the little company selected from the members of the Dramatic Circle of the Art League and everyone who sees it Thursday night will be satisfied.

Each rehearsal brings out some of the hidden talent of the players, something that has not previously shown itself so there is no telling what will happen Thursday night. Manager Adams says there will be surely a surprise for the public when the company appears. The seats are selling in a way that speaks well for the financial returns to the League as there are very few of them left in the circle and the demand is such as would indicate a capacity house.

The cause is helping the demand. People who are interested in the up-building of Honolulu are anxious to see such an institution and they are glad to have someone do the work that will bring the result. The work is being done and the League will stand out as one of the attractive places for tourists in consequence.

Go to Wall, Nichols Co., Ltd., and secure your seats. Those who have exchange tickets would do well to present them before it is too late, as only very few of them are left. The price of a reserved seat is one dollar.

HAWAIIAN CURIOS AT ST. PETERSBURG

While the local historians have shown considerable interest in the collection of old Hawaiian curios, which, according to Prof. Svalowsky who is now visiting here, is in the possession of a St. Petersburg museum, the statements as to how they came into its possession have differed to some extent. The true version of the matter is contained in the account of Captain Cook's voyages, which refer to the matter as follows:

"After visiting Captain Clerke, and taking a view of both the ships, he (Major Behm) returned to dinner on board the Resolution; and in the afternoon the various curiosities we had collected in the course of our voyage were shown him, and a complete assortment of every article presented to him by the captain."

The Major Behm referred to was a Russian officer at Kamtschatka, who took certain despatches of the expedition to Europe, where he returned shortly after his meeting with the expedition.

WU HEADS LO SUN

A complete account of the case of Lo Sun was laid before H. E. Wu Ting Fang, the Chinese Ambassador to Washington, when he passed through here last Saturday. The first petition, in Chinese, was presented to him by Lo Sun and the representatives of the Chinese United Society.

After his introduction to Ambassador Wu, Mr. Thwing presented an English petition on behalf of Lo Sun. Dr. Wu, who showed interest in the matter, indicated a willingness to look into the case. The Ambassador also said that he would try to see that a limited number of Chinese laborers each year be allowed to enter Hawaii for the cultivation of rice.

FIRST REGIMENT, HAWAII

The organized militia is no longer to be known as the National Guard of Hawaii. The name has been changed, in accordance with new army regulations, to "First Regiment, Hawaii." This is in accordance with the plan of the War Department to make the
